TEAM ARISTO AND THE 2008 OFFERINGS

by Lewis Polk

Team Aristo has worked all year on this year's offerings and actually started some projects several years ago. Projects originate in meetings with John Mikesh, the product manager and with George Adams, Scott Polk and Lewis Polk. We discuss the market needs and the marketing required to make a product successful as well as discussing if it can be made economically and thus be priced properly.

It's then handed off to the original thinkers, our engineers, Mr. Byung Song and J.K. Kim, who have to see if they can create an "innovative" approach to the products we've recommended. If so, they do the design work on CAD/CAM here or sub-contract it out to other engineering types, such as Steve Gugel. Sometimes, we have to travel to see the real loco or car and take measurements and hundreds of photos. We sometimes will give this to our factory engineers at Sanda Kan in China to do the development. Of course, we take those drawings and review and amend them here before the tooling is started.

There isn't a day that goes by that we don't discuss how to make a new product or how to improve what we're already making. Navin, our "repair doctor," gives us a tremendous insight into repetitive problems and he discusses those with the staff engineers who will resolve the issues with careful drawings of suggested changes.

We also listen carefully to the comments from our online forum, as these posters represent the best of our user community and have great insight as to what really works or not.

At the end of the year, we need to budget what can realistically be made in the next several months. Tools have to be designed after the engineering drawings are done. It takes a specific engineer to design tools that are made in reverse of the actual product with careful planning for shrink rates of the material selected and flow of the plastic through the molds.

After several months we will get test shots for the engineers to review to make sure their ideas were faithfully followed and then we get pre-production samples for testing. Of course, the factory will test run the products for several hundred hours, too, and will heat and cold test, et cetera.

Then, our graphic artist, Michael Vickey, will get involved and he has to redraw the product in CorelDRAW. At that point, he and John Mikesch discuss the possibilities of the right road names and research each and every one. This is necessary so that we can have a photo of the real train before re-creating the artwork down to the data on the sides. Every car and loco are accurate down to this detail, with a library of books that is amongst the most extensive in the country.

Rarely do we rationalize and have to do something to make the product work and for the most part Aristo-Craft is "America's realistic model train company."

Finally, Jonathan Polk has to do the catalog presentation, which is our way of showing the world what we're making and the concept of our whole system. This is done with Scott Polk who is tasked with selling these products during the year.

Maryann Polk has to prepare for the budgeting, purchasing and daily operation of the company. Without her, nothing else would work. It's truly a team effort and I am the coach of some very talented people who are self reliant, knowledgeable and professional in their approach to the product line. Of course the office staff really controls everything, and Aixa Lebron, Jackie Carceras and Priya Shievdayal work the computers to provide a paper trail that allows us to see if we're operating successfully. Alan, John, Davi and Sherry get the product out the door with a great record of shipping with the smallest number of possible errors and usually the same day the order is placed.

I'm the coach who is blessed with the job of keeping this talented team working smoothly. It's perhaps one of the world's best jobs.

So, we proudly present our 2008 Aristo-Craft game plan. Enjoy!

LARGE SCALE TRAIN SHOW NEWSby Harry Hartman

Harry Hartman is the Large Scale Show Manager for the East Coast Large Scale Train Show, Southeast Large Scale Train Show, and Midwest Large Scale Train Show.

*Miller-Murphy-Howard Building
Site of the 2008 SELSTS happening in February*

PART I: Two shows right around the corner and a third one in October of 2008!

By the time you read this, the SELSTS will be less than 60 days away. The show is on track for February 15th and 16th. The show will see some new vendors and the return of many of the vendors from the past two years. All of the clubs that have displayed in the past will be there again. Some of the new vendors for the SELSTS are Accucraft, Vanco's Log Dollhouses and More, and QSI Solutions. Two of these vendors are coming because of the positive comments sent by many of you saying that you would like to see them come to the SELSTS. I have always said, "The power of the pen works."

The ECLSTS show is about 90 plus days away and is filling in quickly. Many of your favorite vendors from the past years will be there and we have a few new vendors coming too.

QSI Solutions and American Lawn Lights are two of the new vendors for the ECLSTS. QSI Solutions has sound systems for your trains and American Lawn Lights has a very nice selection of lighthouse replicas. These lighthouses are very well constructed. As we speak, we are trying to secure a shipping company for both shows so you can have your purchases shipped home.

By the time you read this, the notices for the MWLSTS will be in the mail to the vendors. If you have a favorite vendor that you would like to see at any of these shows, encourage them to come to any and/or ALL of these shows. They can visit the largescaletrainshows.com web site to get information about the shows. They can also visit the Aristo Craft web site and go to the Aristo Forums. At the bottom of the main page for the list of the forums you will find a forum for all three Large Scale Train Shows put on by JJ Productions. We have decided that the Show Engine will be a MKT FA-1 (two numbers, red-yellow-silver paint.) The show box car will be a double door 40' boxcar. MKT Sloan Yellow is the color and the lettering and graphics are black. As of this time, we do not have any artist drawings or photos of what these will look like, but if you keep checking the two websites, as soon as we get the photos or artist's drawings, they will be posted.

I still maintain that word of mouth is the best type of advertisement for each of these shows. Remember what it felt like after your first visit to one of these shows? You need to pass that same feeling on to some of your close friends and invite or better yet, bring them with you to one of the Large Scale Train Shows listed above. Let's face it, some of your friends who really enjoy your garden railroad empire do not know about any of the publications or web sites dedicated to garden railroading. I have always said, "Introduce ten new people to the hobby and bring at least two of them to a Large Scale Train Show in your area. There are great bargains to be found at each of these shows. The show engines and show cars are some examples of great bargains to be found at these shows.

Here is the latest information about the show cars and engines. The SELSTS and the ECLSTS Show Box Cars were ordered with plastic wheels, not the metal wheels as originally ordered and announced, so we have decided to sell the show box cars for $35 each and the metal wheel set for $15 each.

ONE-DAY TICKET: ADULT - $10, CHILDREN UNDER 12 FREE

That still makes the show cars with metal wheels for $50 and they will come in 4 different road numbers. Remember the show engines are $150 and they will come in two road numbers. The double door Box car for the MWLSTS should come with metal wheels already installed.

Hope to see you at one of the shows. Please find me at the shows and come up to me and introduce yourself to me and my wife, Kathy. We will be glad to meet you.

Kathy and I hope that you had a wonderful Christmas and are looking forward to a great new year! Kathy and I were blessed with the birth of our first grandchild. Our oldest son, Scott, and his wife, Rachel, had a baby girl on November 24th. Kelsey Anne Hartman came into this world weighing 8 pounds and 9.6 ounces. She arrived with almost enough hair to go have a perm. We are already looking at a starter set for her. Kathy is already thinking about making her a hat. I bet you can guess what kind of a hat it will be. Right! An engineer's hat! Kelsey Anne's father had an engineer's hat from when he was 4 months until about 18 months old.

I hope that Santa brought you some trains for Christmas! I asked for a Western Maryland GP-40. Thanks again and see you at the shows!

PART II: The Land of Lincoln! Springfield, Illinois will be the site of the MidWest Large Scale Train Show on October 3rd and 4th of 2008. This show will be held on the Illinois State Fair Grounds in the ORR Building. We had some pictures of the building and the interior in the last issue of the "Insider." Now those of you living in the midwest and the west coast will not have as far to come to a show for great bargains, and the chance to talk with many of the makers of large-scale trains and accessories, and fellow large-scale train enthusiasts. There is lots to do while you are in Springfield, Illinois. The Springfield Conventions and Visitors Bureau's website is www.visit-springfieldilinois.com.

This is going to be a very exciting show as we are already receiving requests for vendor information and a couple clubs wanting to display at this show. Save your money and tell all your friends that they need to be there for this show. Tell your favorite vendors that you will be looking for them at this show!

Large-Scale Fun Coming To EnterTrainment Junction!

Aristo-Craft Trains is a proud sponsor of EnterTrainment Junction in West Chester, Ohio. Currently under construction and scheduled to open in June 2008, EnterTrainment Junction is a new indoor theme park devoted to model railroading!

This exciting project is being developed by Don Oeters of the Greater Cincinnati Garden Railway Society and supported by volunteer members of his club.

Some of the many features of the park in development are:

- G-scale Train Layout - 20,000+ square feet, heights of 20 feet, involving many operating trains.
- Railroad museum displays
- Children's activity center
- Seasonal maze
- Children's birthday banquet facility
- Snack bar, gift shop, specialty retail shops including a hobby shop, and meeting rooms.
- Future plans may include other model railroad layouts in different scales created by other participating clubs, other related hobby events such as R/C auto racing, etc.

(list of features from the GCGRS web site, <http://www.gcgrs.org/BTPMain.asp>)

EnterTrainment Junction sent us some pictures of their work in progress, which you can see on the right.
