Bring Family To See Gold Canyon Trains

Saturday, December 08, 2012, 05:30pm - 08:30pm
Next Repeat

Free display two weekends in December

For the past several years, many area residents have enjoyed Dennis and Dana Busby's Garden Railroad during the Christmas Season.

This railroad in a Gold Canyon backyard features more than 500 feet of track, many bridges, trestles and tunnels and features the small town of Boulder.

This year, the display will be open to the public during two weekends: Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 8-9, from 5:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m., and Saturday and Sunday, Dec.15-16, from 5:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

The display is free and open to the public, but the Busbys will accept donations for the Arizona Big Train Operators Club (ABTO) to benefit the promotion of Garden Railroading through shows, open houses and also the maintenance of the indoor garden railroad at Cardon Children's Medical Center.

The address of the display is 7097 E. Cuernavaco Way in Gold Canyon. To get to the Open House, take Superstition Mountain Drive from U.S. Highway 60 to Hacienda LaColorada and follow the signs.

The Busby's train layout is just one of many area garden railroads that are having open houses these two weekends.

Some houses will be open Friday and Saturdays, and not Sunday evenings.

For further information and maps of other locations, please visit ABTO website or Facebook.

Location : 7097 E. Cuernavaco Way in Gold Canyon
